

December 4, 2024
Nippon Life Insurance Company

Results of the 2024 PRI Assessment
-Nippon Life Scored 5 Stars in Four Modules-

Nippon Life Insurance Company (President: Hiroshi Shimizu, hereinafter “Nippon Life”) hereby announces that it received the results of the 2024 Principles for Responsible Investment (hereinafter “PRI”) assessment.

Nippon Life scored the highest assessment grade “5 stars” in four modules.

【Results of the 2024 PRI Assessment】

Module	Details	Grade
Policy Governance and Strategy	Overall policy, governance, and strategy of its responsible investment	★★★★★ 5 stars
Indirect - Listed equity - Passive	Selection, appointment and monitoring of investment managers	★★★★★ 4 stars
Indirect - Listed equity - Active	Selection, appointment and monitoring of investment managers	★★★★★ 5 stars
Indirect - Fixed income - Active	Selection, appointment and monitoring of investment managers	★★★★★ 5 stars
Confidence building measures	The review and/or verification of data reported	★★★★★ 5 stars

Given its mission and the public nature as a life insurance company, as well as to enable the coexistence with the environment, community, society and economy, Nippon Life is strengthening its responsible investment strategy.

Nippon Life will continue to value responsible investment with the aim of contributing to the sustainability of the society and the interests of policyholders.